

FCC Releases Statistical Reports On The Telecom Industry

Washington, D.C. June 5, 2002. The Federal Communications Commission has released a number of statistical reports on key aspects of the telecom industry. A partial list of those reports is presented below:

Trends in Telephone Service Report. Provides answers to some of the most frequently asked questions about the telephone industry asked by consumers, members of Congress, other government agencies, telecommunications carriers, and members of the business and academic community. Released 5/02.

Telephone Subscribership Report. Details telephone subscribership by state, income level, race, age, household size, and employment status. Data through 11/01. Released 5/02.

Telephone Penetration Report. This report presents data on telephone penetration levels by state for various income levels. Data through 2001, released 4/02.

Local Telephone Competition. This report provides information on the state of competition for local telecommunications services. Provides summary statistics of data that incumbent and competitive local exchange carriers, and mobile wireless telephone service providers, filed twice a year on FCC Form 477. February 2002 Release.

High-Speed Services for Internet Access. Provides summary statistics of data that facilities-based providers of high-speed services file twice a year on FCC Form 477. February 2002 Release. Subscribership as of June 30, 2001.

If you would like any of these reports, or other industry data, please feel free to contact us.